RecordClick.com Is Making a Production Out of Genealogy – Family Genealogy Research Company Now Offers Video Biographies

In Conjunction with Reel Tributes, RecordClick Adds "Documentaries of a Lifetime" to Its Genealogy Ancestry Services"

Denville, NJ – RecordClick.com, a full-service family genealogy research company, continues to expand its roster of family genealogy research services by offering video biographies to its customers. In affiliation with Washington, D.C.-based Reel Tributes, the premier producer of high-end personal history documentary films, RecordClick now extends fully-customized video chronicles to complement its traditional family genealogy services. Various video packages can be ordered online by contacting a RecordClick genealogist through the company's genealogical service website at www.RecordClick.com.

A video biography is a personal documentary filled with interviews, photographs, narration, archival footage, home videos, and music that is produced and edited into artistic, high-definition, television-quality documentaries. Reel Tributes' video biographies "share the wisdom of older generations, commemorate life's milestones, and explore a family's legacy."

"Whatever your budget is; whatever your celebration, tribute, or memorial may be – a video biography is one of those 'Just-Gotta-Have-It' kinds of treats that we allow ourselves in our lifetime, without a moment of regret," explains Elizabeth Khan, Founder and CEO of RecordClick.com. "It's not just for today, it's for generations to come, and we are so happy to make it available to our clients. Family genealogy documentaries and tributes make a great Valentine's Day, Anniversary, or Birthday gift for a special loved one."

RecordClick and its expert genealogists have been actively engaged in satisfying customers' requests for traditional family search genealogy and genealogy tree research services. However, it goes the extra mile to enhance its customers' ancestor search experience by making complementary resources available, such as DNA genealogy testing kits from Family Tree DNA and video biographies from Reel Tributes.

We refer to our films as "Documentaries of a Lifetime," explains David Adelman, Founder and CEO of Reel Tributes. "Making our product available through RecordClick allows us to reach a group of consumers who have a sincere appreciation of family genealogy research, and who are looking for an innovative way to preserve and share memories of their genealogy tree." Adelman adds, "The Reel Tributes production team can bring your ancestor search to life with a film that will engage family members young and old."
